

Requesting an Audio Script

An eLearning Library audio script is a transcription of the narration of an online course that can be used as a supporting resource. Unless a Course Program is purchased, audio scripts must be requested. Audio scripts are only available in English.

To request an audio script, send your request to ILNInfo@ieee.org, including the name of the course you have enrolled in.